

CURRICULUM VITAE

Prof. LAVINIA BARONE

Full Professor in developmental psychology

Born in Genoa, Italy, in April, the 9th, 1961

Office: Department of Brain and Behavioral Sciences, Piazza Botta 11, 27100 Pavia, Italy. Tel. 0382-9864654, fax 0382986272, e-mail: lavinia.barone@unipv.it

I have been qualified by the national evaluation system for a full Professor position since 2013. I was appointed Full Professor of Developmental Psychology in 2017 in the University of Pavia.

I was appointed Associate Professor of Developmental Psychology in the University of Pavia in 2000. Prior to the current post I worked as researcher and clinician at IRCS San Raffaele of Milan (1988-1995) and as a researcher at the University of Trieste (1995 – 2000).

Since 1990 I have been a member of the Italian Psychologists' Association (OPL) as psychologist and psychotherapist. My main clinical interests are in the field of socio-emotional development, parenting and personality disorders.

I gained a Master degree in Philosophy at Genoa University in 1984. I continued my studies at the Catholic University in Milan, where I received my Ph.D. in Psychology in 1992.

While a Ph.D student, I also completed a research fellowship at The New York-Hospital-Cornell Medical Center (1990-91), dealing with emotion regulation and borderline personality disorder. I specialised in attachment assessment, with trainings and certifications for the following instruments and EBI interventions: "Adult Attachment Interview", "Strange Situation Procedure", "Manchester Child Attachment Story Task", "Hostile/Helplessness AAI Coding System", "Emotional Availability Scale", VIPP-SD, DBT.
